Kurve living and dining range, Vale Interiors

Your living room is the most treasured space in the house, which can serve a multitude of functions. From a formal sitting area, for reading, relaxing, watching TV, playing games, to entertaining and spending time with the family, a contemporary design will tick all the boxes. A well-designed living area benefits from a sofa, a coffee table and a focal point such as a fireplace, bookshelves or entertainment centre...

dining table, from £749, Vale Interiors

Bedrooms are an extension of our living space and we now tend to spend more time in them, treating them as a personal refuge. With the right pieces, even the smallest bedroom can appear larger and less enclosed...

Meanwhile, a modern kitchen has to be functional, inviting and practical, as it is often the hub of the house. No matter how small or large your space is, you can still create a striking look, incorporating the essential triangle workspace. Storage, lighting and appliances are key aspects in any layout.
